Questions 21-25

A new era is underway for the Roman Catholic Church. After two days and five votes a conclave of cardinals chose an Argentinian cardinal to lead the church's 1.2 billion 21. Jorge Bergoglio becomes the first 22 from Latin America and the first to take the name Pope Francis.

On the second day of a conclave to elect the new pope, the cardinals chose Jorge Bergoglio. The 76 year old, who served as archbishop of Buenos Aires, was not considered a favorite to 23 Pope Benedict XVI. In many ways he is a pope of firsts: the first pope of the modern era not born in Europe, the first to come from the Americas and the first Jesuit.

The new pope chose the name Francis to honor St. Francis of Assisi, who worked hard to help the poor and was a reformer who 24 God's call "to repair my church in ruins."

Some cardinals feel that Bergoglio has a common-man style, and they consider his simple approach would be good for the Church because the Vatican is often perceived as inaccessible or distant. Many Catholics are now hoping that the 25 described will help Pope Francis deal with the serious problems facing the Vatican.

Questions 26-30

This is a key marketing tool, so it's worth spending time and effort on producing the best piece of self-promotion possible. There is no proper format, but make sure you have clear headings, that it is concise, and free from any kind of error. You should identify the needs of your prospective employer. This will help you to work out what to include, what to highlight, and what is irrelevant. Under each heading, list your qualifications in reverse chronological order. Do not omit a section on your interests. Employers actually find this kind of information very useful as it can provide them with an idea of an applicant's personality. They will use this to decide how you might fit into an existing team.

Once the company has received your résumé and offers you an interview, it's time you did some serious investigation. This doesn't just mean that you visit the company's website and parrot back the contents of the "About . . ." page. Instead, search the Internet for newspaper articles, go to the library for industry journals, and talk to any contacts who know the company. If you can refer to these, you will persuade the interviewer that you are genuinely interested in working for the company.

- (A) To sell a product.
  - (B) To establish good relationship with co-workers.
  - (C) To have the best debut.
  - (D) To have a successful job interview.
27. What is the first rule to follow in the marketing tool?
- (A) To know your own ID number.
  - (B) To know what the potential employer need.
  - (C) To have a good education background.
  - (D) To have good speaking ability.
28. According to the suggestions of the passage, what is Not likely to be included in your résumé?
- (A) Hobbies.
  - (B) Past work experience.
  - (C) Education background.
  - (D) Marital status.
29. According to the passage, how to persuade the interviewer you are really interested in working for the company?
- (A) To prepare an excellent résumé.
  - (B) To search for related information about the company.
  - (C) To give an interesting talk on your goal in the future.
  - (D) To promote yourself in an amazing way.
30. What is Not mentioned in the paragraph?
